

The diagram below (not to scale) represents the layout of each floor of the three-story building. The apartment numbering starts with the number four. The second number in the apartment number represents the floor so for example, #4303 is the third floor, #4203 is the apartment directly under #4303, and #4103 is the apartment directly under #4203.

